GLOPEM Double Degree Master Programmes

CALL for the Academic Year 2022-2023

The GLOPEM Double Degree (DD) Master programme selects GLOPEM students to spend one or two semesters of year II at one partner institution, namely the University of Liège (ULg), Université de Paris XII Est Créteil (UPEC) and University of Flensburg (EUF).

GLOPEM DD students are enrolled at the partner institution for one (at UPEC and EUF) or two (at ULg) semesters and undertake the study plan as described on the partner’s website. Students may wish to check also the GLOPEM DD website: http://www.dsps.unict.it/it/internazionale/doppio-titolo

Students are expected to pass all exams of their study plan and discuss their dissertation at UNICT by the end of their second academic year in order to receive a degree title from ULg/UPEC/EUF on top to the Master Degree released by the University of Catania.

Candidates must have accomplished the GLOPEM study plan related to Semester I and have fully succeeded all exams with an average grade of 26/30. They are requested to send the following documents by 20th May 2022:

a. the transcript of records of all GLOPEM exams related to semester I;

b. a letter of interest and motivation to participate in the chosen program, containing also the exam plan up to September 2021;

c. a CV (non-European format) with evidence of relevant extra-curricular experiences specifying the BA final mark.

Applications must be sent to Prof. Stefania Panebianco stefania-panebianco@unict.it, who is in charge of the DD portfolio and copied to the Chair of the GLOPEM Master, Prof. Daniela Irrera daniela.irrera@unict.it.

The GLOPEM Academic Board assesses the applications and makes the rankings. Selected candidates will be nominated to the hosting Institution by 30th June 2022. Students are responsible for fulfilling all administrative requirements set by the hosting institution within the set deadlines.

Selected students must prove that they have sufficient knowledge of French before moving to ULg or UPEC.

Funding may be made available by UNICT and/or other donors.

NOTA BENE: As stated in the Conventions with the partner universities, selected GLOPEM students are requested to pass all exams of year I before starting the degree programme in the partner university.
