GLOPEM Double Degree Master Programmes

CALL for the Academic Year 2020-2021

The GLOPEM Double Degree (DD) Master programmes allow selected GLOPEM students to spend one academic year or one semester at one partner institution, namely University of Liège (ULg) Université de Paris XII Est Créteil (UPEC) and University of Flensburg (EUF). Upon completion of their study plan, students receive a degree title from the ULg/UPEC/EUF on top to the Master Degree released by the University of Catania.

Double Degree students are enrolled at the partner institution for one (at UPEC and EUF) or two (at ULg) semesters and undertake the study plan as described in annex 1 below.

Applications must be addressed to the Chair of the GLOPEM Master, Prof. Francesca Longo, and sent to Prof. Stefania Panebianco stefapnb@unict.it, who is in charge of the DD portfolio.

Candidates are requested to send the following documents by 20th June 2020:

- a. a letter of interest and motivation to participate in the chosen program, containing also the exam plan up to September 2020/January 2021. Students must have fully succeeded all exams related to Year I before moving to the host institution;
- b. the transcript of records of both the BA and MA degrees;
- c. a CV (non-European format) with evidence of relevant extra-curricular experiences.

The GLOPEM Academic Board assesses the applications and makes the rankings.

Selected students must prove that they have sufficient knowledge of French before moving to ULg or UPEC.

Selected candidates will be nominated to the hosting Institution which will provide an application package. Students are responsible for fulfilling all administrative requirements set by the hosting institution within the set deadlines.

Students participating in the DD Program might be entitled to receive mobility funds.
