

Call for Applications for Study Grants for EU and non-EU students living abroad that are going to enroll in GLOPEM Master Degree Program at the University of Catania Academic Year 2017/18

ART. 1 – Number and value of the grants.

The GLOPEM master degree course offers up to 3 scholarships of 700 Euros (gross of all statutory taxes and inclusive of charges covered by the university) each to foreign students (EU and not EU nationals) residing abroad in order to help them in their first year of study.

The study grants will be awarded to European and non-European foreign students living abroad regularly enrolled in the Glopem Master degree course for A.Y. 2017-2018 at the University of Catania.

ART. 2 - Criteria for drafting the ranking list

Scholarships will be awarded following an interview which will be held on the 25th of September 2017 at 9.30 am at the Department of Political and Social Sciences, via Vittorio Emanuele, 49, Catania.

The interview is aimed at verifying student's motivation, interest and knowledge of the main themes of the Master programme.

The ranking list will be drawn up in decreasing order of total score assigned to each applicant, based on the sum of the partial scores obtained for :

- evaluation of academic records
- results of the interview

ART. 3– Application methods

All students (EU and non EU) in order to take part in the selection should confirm their interest by submitting via mail at glopem@unict.it the application form (duly signed together with an id document).

For Non EU students living abroad the admission board will avail the individual interview, compulsory and selective for the final list of admissions, already scheduled for the 25th of September 2017 at 9.30 am

EU Students living abroad that are not requested to take the interview in order to be admitted to the GLOPEM Master Degree course but are interested in taking part to the Selection for the award of scholarships should nonetheless present themselves for the interview on the 25th of September 2017 at 9.30 am
