

Call For Applications

IM Division Mid-Career Faculty Consortium 2015

Grazia Santangelo
IM Division MFC Chair

APPLICATION DEADLINE: May 10, 2015

The IM Division is organizing a Mid-Career Faculty Consortium (MFC) on Saturday, August 8th from 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the 2015 Academy of Management Annual Meeting in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The MFC is for tenured faculty who want to reflect strategically about their career progress. A panel of distinguished faculty will address strategies to develop, renew or maintain MFC participants' ability to successfully publish international research. The panelists will also provide their perspectives on how to manage this stage of career, and discuss professional challenges, problems, and opportunities facing faculty post-tenure and the challenges on the road to becoming a Full Professor. Panelists will share views on topics ranging from editorial roles, sabbaticals, leadership in professional organizations, changing institutions, executive education, conference organization, administrative roles, and working with doctoral students. The expertise of the panelists encompasses both macro and micro approaches to international research, as well as deep knowledge pertaining to a variety of areas around the world.

Tentative Format of the Consortium

- Lunch with opportunities for informal networking
- Presentations on specific topics by invited panelists and Q&A session
- Small group discussions led by invited panelists
