WELCOME TO EUF-UNICT DD PROGRAM!

Keeping up

You're going to get lost in your first few weeks as an international student. It's annoying, it's inconvenient, but it's going to happen as you get used to a new area.

Fitting in

---

Definitely just being away from home, having to adjust to a new environment, a new culture, being around new people.

You'll suddenly find yourself into a completely different culture. The people behave differently, the food is different, and you can't get used to the way they socialize.

But what's really nice is you're not the only one.

Be yourself and allow your new friends to learn about your culture while sharing their viewpoints with you

Avoid believing and reinforcing stereotypes

---

- It's easy to stay ignorant about another culture because finding out we (or our society as a whole) are wrong is hard to accept. But by consciously deciding not to believe in and thus reinforce cultural stereotypes, you will have an infinitely improved study abroad experience.

Be the version of the tourist you want to hear about.

---

The. Paperwork.

---

- Brace yoorself to it.
- Make sure you have all of your paperwork in order.
- “I DON’T NEED TO WRITE THAT DOWN, I’LL REMEMBER IT.” NO YOU WON’T. WRITE IT DOWN.

Navigating the education system

- Performance requirements during academic studies
- The differences in grading system
- The differences in the exam system

- Remember, once you are admitted as a student at a German university, you have to be very organised.
- Follow proper documentation processes and meet the deadlines for all your academic tasks, be it registering/unregistering for an exam or submission papers
- Read. The. Syllabus. It's basically a big study guide and has all of your spoiler-alerts for the whole semester.

“Success occurs
when opportunity meets preparation.”
